STYLE UNDER STRESS SELF ASSESSMENT

The following questions explore how you typically respond when you’re in the middle of a crucial conversation.

T F 1. At times I avoid situations that might bring me into contact with people I’m having problems with.

T F 2. I have put off returning phone calls or e-mails because I simply didn’t want to deal with the person who sent them.

T F 3. Sometimes when people bring up a touchy or awkward issue, I try to change the subject.

T F 4. When it comes to dealing with awkward or stressful subjects, sometimes I hold back rather than give my full and candid opinion.

T F 5. Rather than tell people exactly what I think, sometimes I rely on jokes, sarcasm, or snide remarks to let them know I’m frustrated.

T F 6. When I’ve got something tough to bring up, sometimes I offer weak or insincere compliments to soften the blow.

T F 7. In order to get my point across, I sometimes exaggerate my side of the argument.

T F 8. If I seem to be losing control of a conversation, I might cut people off or change the subject in order to bring it back to where I think it should be.

T F 9. When others make points that seem stupid to me, I sometimes let them know it without holding back at all.

T F 10. When I’m stunned by a comment, sometimes I say things that others might take as forceful or attacking—comments such as “Give me a break!” or “That’s ridiculous!”

T F 11. Sometimes when things get heated, I move from arguing against others’ points to saying things that might hurt them personally.

T F 12. If I get into a heated discussion, I’ve been known to be tough on the other person. In fact, the person might feel a bit insulted or hurt.

SELF ASSESSMENT SCORING GUIDE

Please fill out the score sheet below. Next to the question number is either a (T) or an (F). For example, under “Masking,” question 5, you’ll find a (T). This means that if you answered it true, check the box. Your Style Under Stress score will give you a measure of how frequently you fall into these less-than-perfect strategies. A high score (one or two boxes checked per domain) means you use this technique fairly often. It also means you’re human. Most people toggle between holding back and becoming too forceful.
